

ATLAS WOMEN'S CENTRE

Contact: Stephen Reid

Address: 81 Sloan Street.

Lisburn.

Tel: 02892 605806

e-mail: atlascentre@hotmail.com

web: www.atlaswomenscentre.com

ATLAS WOMEN'S CENTRE

Background to the Organisation

Formed in 1994 by community women, Atlas is now a training organisation for 1,000 people throughout the year. It provides education and learning courses for all adults.

Mission Statement

To connect individuals and communities to lifelong learning, and realisation of personal goals in a comfortable, safe environment, with guidance and support. Atlas are committed to excellence in training and personal development irrespective of age, gender, colour, religion, political affiliation or ability.

Products & Services

Currently offer

- Free courses and crèche provision for pre-school children for carers/parents attending courses at Atlas

Developing

- Atlas are developing new courses in conjunction with Women's TEC, a social enterprise based in North Belfast offering women skills in non-traditional industries like joinery and plumbing.

Supported by

- Proteus
- DSD
- BBC Children in Need
- Lisburn Partnership
- NIPPA
- CDHN
- Lisburn Council
- Big Lottery
- Social Economy Lisburn

