- Share Protection Scheme
- Death Benefit Scheme
- Member support such as Stationery (member books, rule books, NI Order etc)

Developing

The organisation is currently investigating a number of opportunities to increase services including an Insurance company and extending the Share Protection Scheme to offer low interest loans to member Credit Unions. They may be interested in public procurement opportunities in future.

Supported by

Although primarily self financing the UFCU has been supported by Belfast Local Strategy Partnership and also Lisburn Partnership to deliver specific aims.

Ulster Federation of Credit Unions

Background to the Organisation

Established in 1995 through an evolution of the NFCU (Northern Ireland), the Ulster Federation of Credit Unions is representative of almost 60 individual credit unions across the Province. Credit Unions serve to benefit their members offering a range of financial services to those excluded from mainstream banking such as loans and savings.

Mission Statement

The UFCU will act as the voice of Northern Ireland based Credit Unions and will provide a range of quality support services to help make Credit Unions a viable choice for low cost, ethical financial services.

Products & Services

Currently offer

The UFCU provides a range of support services to member Credit Unions across NI including:
