Products and services

Currently offer

We support and help you in your relationships and family life. We have a number of networks and initiatives that enable us to do this. We have a wide range of resources on family life for: dads, young widows and widowers, bereaved parents and for families with children with additional needs. See our website for more details.

Background to the Organisation

Care for the Family has been supporting and encouraging families in the UK since 1988. Its family-building events have been attended by over 275,000 people and many more have been helped through special initiatives - including stepfamilies, bereaved parents and those parenting alone. Founded by best-selling author and speaker Rob Parsons, the charity is committed to strengthening family life and helping those who face family difficulties. The Lisburn office was opened in January 1998.
